

Ocean Fever

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

I shall return to the sea once more
For the winds so wild and ascending tides
Call my name with relentless roar
And when the sails are raised above
Moonlight guides my lonely path
I shall return to the sea
Until I've reached my destiny

Back to the Sea

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

Over and over the albatross flies to the shore
Serving as herald of peace in the shadows of war
Nations are falling one after one
Ruled by tyrant lords
Gather your comrades rally the cause
Time to raise the sword

Lost in the haze Atlantica's dwelling in exile
Kept to themselves as the wars of the world all arose
Centuries passed the verdict revoked
Now we break our bonds
Fire the engines ready the guns
Everyone on board!

Back to the sea

Oceans are calling

Ride on the northwind and reach for the sky

Back to the sea

I'll face my destiny

Riding on oceans and rivers once more

Flying the flag of the free

Back to the sea

We bid our past farewell and leave our home behind
Out on the open sea with fires burning bright
We ride on seismic streams and fly up to the sky
Into the raging storm
We're ready for the fight

Back to the sea

Oceans are calling

Ride on the northwind and reach for the sky

Back to the sea

I'll face my destiny

Riding on oceans and rivers once more

Flying the flag of the free

Back to the sea

Back to the sea

Oceans are calling

Ride on the northwind and reach for the sky

Back to the sea

I'll face my destiny

Riding on oceans and rivers once more

Flying the flag of the free

Back to the sea

Hoist the Sail

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

There's gold within the riverbanks

And mountains overseas

Far away far away far away

The trees are bright and emerald

And amber are the fields

Far away far away far away

The wind and the seagulls are calling
Rise with the dawn of the tide
Gather your men and raise the anchor
Strike when the time is right

Hoist the sail to the darkened horizon
Break away to the other side
So far are the lands of the unknown
And so many battles to fight
Hoist the sail when the storm is arising
Break away to a newborn day
For our force to prevail
You have to hoist the sail

The legends of the paradise did travel over the seas

Far away far away far away

And lust for gold and property were spreading like a disease
Far away far away far away

The wind and the seagulls are calling
Ours are the oceans and tides
Gather your men and raise the anchor
Right now the time is to strike in the ultimate fight

Hoist the sail to the darkened horizon
Break away to the other side
So far are the lands of the unknown
And so many battles to fight
Hoist the sail when the storm is arising
Break away to a newborn day
For our force to prevail
You have to hoist the sail

Hoist the sail to the darkened horizon

Break away to the other side
So far are the lands of the unknown
And so many battles to fight
Hoist the sail when the storm is arising
Break away to a newborn day
For our force to prevail
You have to hoist the sail

You must hoist the sail

Hoist the sail

Caribbean Shores

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

Cold is the night on the way to Aruba
Oceans are stirring beneath
Try to get lost on the straits of Bermuda
Another wreckage to heave

Silent suffocation battle of the nations

Avarice and vanity

War and devastation total occupation

Fly me away from it all

On the quest for an island embraced by the sun
We escape from the shadows of war
With a handful of gold and a chest full of hope
We arrive at the Caribbean shores

Lie on the coast till the days fade into night

Beverages melt in our hands

Gaze in your eyes as we dance in the moonlight

And reunite in the sand

Avarice and vanity

War and devastation currency inflation

Fly me away from it all

On the quest for an island embraced by the sun

We escape from the shadows of war

With a handful of gold and a chest full of hope

We arrive at the Caribbean shores

On the quest for an island embraced by the sun

We escape from the shadows of war

On the quest for an island embraced by the sun

We escape from the shadows of war

With a handful of gold and a chest full of hope

We arrive at the Caribbean shores

Embraced by the sun

With a handful of gold and a chest full of hope

We arrive at the Caribbean shores

We arrive at the Caribbean shores

Turn of the Tide

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

Eye of the storm

Brace yourselves for the onslaught

Leading the way to take them into the shelter again

Chaos unfolds

Sailors die in the crossfire

Taking the chance

To break away in the turmoil and smoke

Making my way to the portside

The Narwhal is waiting at hand

Most of our forces defeated

Time to take a stand

Turn of the tide

Feel the power at the

Turn of the tide

Final hour striking

Now and the end is nigh

All of our people will die

Turn of the tide

Feel the power at the

Turn of the tide

Final hour striking

Now and the war has begun

Fight till the battle is won

Fire at will

Spread the flame of destruction

Torment and pain

Await those who dare to stand in my way

Vengeance is mine

I finally step from the shadows

Now is the time

To take back what was expelled from my life

Fleet of the empire is leading

Vanquishing all in their path

Mortheon's powers increasing

Strike them from above

Turn of the tide

Feel the power at the

Turn of the tide

Final hour striking

Now and the war has begun

Fight till the battle is won

Turn of the tide

Feel the power at the

Turn of the tide

Final hour striking

Now and the end is nigh

All of our people will die

From the stories told and lore behind the doors of ancient times
Now a storm returns to paradise
And all our efforts and illusions of control could not withhold
The prosecution of their avarice

Turn of the tide

Feel the power at the

Turn of the tide

Final hour striking

Now and the end is nigh

All of our people will die

Turn of the tide

Feel the power at the

Turn of the tide

Final hour striking

Now and the war has begun

Fight till the battle is won

Through the Water and the Waves

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

Rise from the waves

Protect the brave

The captain's word is calling

We're rolling out to sea

We must protect the realm from enemies

From the land beyond the passage of the northern sun

Comes a devastating menacing fleet

Atlantica's imperiled with defeat

In the heart of the ocean sleeping deep

there's a god with an ancient force

By the chant of the sacred rite awakened

We're bringing him forth

Rise from the waves

Protect the brave

Through the water and the waves

Lord of the sea

Your destiny

Will forever be engraved

In the water and the waves

Rudder hard to starboard

The sheets are flying free

Our vessel's but a plaything to the sea

Though the battleships are breaking through the mighty waves

And we're firing the cannons of steel

To supernatural powers we have to yield

From the heart of the oceans rising now

There's a god with an ancient force

By the grace of our lord Poseidon Sailors keeping holding your course

Rise from the waves
Protect the brave
Through the water and the waves
Lord of the sea
Your destiny
Will forever be engraved
In the water and the waves

Rise from the waves
Protect the brave
Through the water and the waves
Lord of the sea
Your destiny
Will forever be engraved
In the water and the waves

Where my Brothers await

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

A sailor once sailed to the end of the world
So far away from the shore
In search for the land where his brothers had gone
And none were seen anymore

So many I've seen pass before me

So many have vanished and died

And no beacon has shown us

The passage unknown

At the end of the night

From the north to the south of the sea

Where my brothers are waiting for me

I will enter the void when my vessel's destroyed

And hand in my name to the lore

I'll be coming back home no more

Now listen my friend as I tell ye this tale

All mortal men write their own

Though everyone's told him his quest were to fail

He sailed out to the unknown

So many I've seen pass before me

So many have drowned in the tide

And no fires have shown us

The passage unknown

At the end of the night

From the north to the south of the sea

Where my brothers are waiting for me

I will enter the void when my vessel's destroyed

And hand in my name to the lore

I'll be coming back home no more

So many I've seen pass before me

So many have vanished and died

And no fires have shown us

The passage unknown

At the end of the night

From the north to the south of the sea

Where my brothers are waiting for me

I will enter the void when my vessel's destroyed

And hand in my name to the lore

I'll be coming back home no more

Land of Submarines

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

Land of Submarines

The time is running low

And so I have to go

Descend to a kingdom so deep

Into the dark we ride

Fast like a shark we strike

Destroying the enemy fleet

Diving deeper sinking further

Reaching out to find the secret shores

Deeper diving deeper to the land of submarines
Descend into the waves and leave your worried mind at ease
Down in the black our hopes coming back
Relentless we rise up once more
From the land of submarines

Crustaceans come alive
Dolphins are passing by
As sonar waves guide our way
Stingrays are on our side
They charge into the fight
And set the torpedoes ablaze

Diving deeper sinking further
Reaching out so far beyond the shores

Deeper diving deeper to the land of submarines
Descend into the waves and leave your worried mind at ease
Down in the black our hopes coming back
Relentless we rise up once more
From the land of submarines

Deeper diving deeper to the land of submarines
Descend into the waves and leave your worried mind at ease
Down in the black our hopes coming back
Relentless we rise up once more
From the land of submarines

Raven in the Dark

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

Don't you tell me
Words gonna go unwell me
Why do you stand in tears
Clouds fading
Sorrows and woe awakening
Try to contain your fears

Seems like a dream but I can
Never know when to be sure what I saw what I've seen
Never to be safe when I break down
Take me away from all

Crush my dreams
I've lost my heart
I'm lost like a raven in the dark (like a raven in the dark)
Oooh I'm torn apart
This quest was condemned up from the start

Silent anger
Walking the path of danger
Why am I stuck in here
Damnation
Fall from a mind's elation
Lost in a world of fear

Seems like a dream but I can
Never know when to be sure what I saw what I've seen
Never to be safe when I break down
Take me away from all

Crush my dreams
I've lost my heart
I'm lost like a raven in the dark (like a raven in the dark)
Oooh I'm torn apart
This quest was condemned up from the start

Crush my dreams
I've lost my heart
I'm lost like a raven in the dark (like a raven in the dark)
Oooh I'm torn apart
This quest was condemned up from the start

But it seems that I have to begin
To acknowledge all the force in my heart deep within
Never to relent never break down
I am my only hope

Crush my dreams
I've lost my heart
I'm lost like a raven in the dark (like a raven in the dark)
Oooh I'm torn apart
This quest was condemned up from the start

But it seems that I have to begin
To acknowledge all the force in my heart deep within
Never to relent never break down
I am my only hope

To the Realm of Gods

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

*To the realm of gods
To the world of faith and spirits
Where the laws of men have turned to sand*

Wielding the torch in caverns ashore
Guiding them straight to the portal
The streams of the Nile stay calm for a while
*Now the time is right
We rise and fight forevermore*

Sheltered by the nightfall we are breaking through the gates
Where the curse of the Pharaoh awaits
Down below now the portal starts to glow
Transcending our souls to the other side

To the realm of gods
To the world of faith and spirits
Where the laws of men will fade like trails in the sand
To the realm of gods

To the world of faith and spirits
And the rising sun will break the chains

See how they rise distaste in their eyes
Clearly outraged by our presence
Obsequious we fall
Oh Zeus hear our call
We have come to trade our lives into eternity

Smile upon our bloodline and we make the sacrifice
Our word shall forever prevail
Strike our foes with the force of thousand suns
Let evil return to oblivion

To the realm of gods

To the world of faith and spirits
Where the laws of men will fade like trails in the sand
To the realm of gods
To the world of faith and spirits
And the rising sun will break the chains

To the realm of gods
To the world of faith and spirits
Where the laws of men will fade like trails in the sand
To the realm of gods
To the world of faith and spirits
And the rising sun will break the chains

Oceans of Eternity

(Lyrics: Tristan Harders / Music: Tristan Harders)

The flight of seagulls's concerning my heart
Gruesome unfolds our fate
Walls of the heavens are tearing apart
No turning back now the day is too late

Dominus aquae et maris

Salva nos a morte

Swords strike and warcries are merged in the fray
Lines fall with every attack
Smoke from the engines eclipsing the day
Banners are tattered and tainted in black

Angelus dominus

Save us from eternal fire

Angelus gloriis

Do you feel my pain

I wait for the oceans of eternity to rise
Tidal waves will lead us straight to paradise

We fight for the right cause

Break forth the tide force

And strike when the night falls

In glory I will be king of the ruins

Ride the ships up from the abyss
Pass over seas of time
Blind devotion covered in bliss
See how the planets align

Clench your sword and pray to the gods
This is the day you die
By divine and mystical force
We will leave noone alive

Vengeance for our fallen brothers
Breaking orders crossing borders

Forever roaming

As we see the future of our world
No guts no glory
And in unity we make our final stand
In the face of our demise
But now we rise

To the ancient towers the battleships fly
Accelerate and brace for a showdown in the sky
Firing full broadside the final attack
The sound of breaking iron the main hull starts to crack
And now there is no escape and below
The depths of hell are awaiting
The engines fail and burst into debris

Like burning hail
We see them descend into
See them descend into
See them descend into hell

Tidal waves will lead us straight to paradise

And now the time has come for everyone
To rise up with the old and young
The realm beyond our fantasy
One day it might be real
We have to fight for what we're living for
And keep the flame forevermore
Together on the open road
You'll never walk alone

And now the time has come for everyone
To rise up with the old and young
The realm beyond our fantasy
One day it might be real
We have to fight for what we're living for
And keep the flame forevermore
Together on the open road

King of Peru

(Lyrics: Gary Unwin / Music: Hanno Harders, Holger Julian Copp)

Way back in history
There was a time
When men were still discovering our world
They sailed the seven seas
Took what they'd find
And be a welcome hero in their land

And they believed it to be good for all mankind
But now we see that their way was also blind

Do you remember the Incas of old
In sailed the spaniards so bold
They plundered the temple and took all their gold
And they murdered the king of Peru

They had their way of life
Peaceful serene
And left a beauty we would never see
There is no reason why
But to believe
The future will be better than the past

As the morning rises on another day
We forget the past and what it had to say

Do you remember the Incas of old
In sailed the spaniards so bold

They plundered the temple and took all their gold
And they murdered the king of Peru

Do you remember the Incas of old
In sailed the spaniards so bold
They plundered the temple and took all their gold
And they murdered the king of Peru

And they murdered the king of Peru
